

QUEEN'S PAWN SYSTEMS

Richter-Veresov Attack

ECO D01 | 12 named lines in this code

Featured opening position - gold marks the last move

IS IT A GOOD OPENING?

Good and fully playable. The position remains within a normal opening balance for both sides.

ENGINE SNAPSHOT

-0.06 for White. A shallow opening score is a guide, not a forced result.

GAME CHARACTER

Active and tactical: both sides must calculate forcing moves before following a thematic plan.

WHAT THIS OPENING IS

D01 covers Richter-Veresov Attack. White establishes d4 and may choose a system development or an early gambit before the structure is fixed. The diagram uses the featured line Richter-Veresov Attack.

DEFINING ROUTE

1. d4 Nf6 2. Nc3 d5 3. Bg5

UNDERSTAND THE POSITION

What both sides are trying to achieve

WHITE'S GOALS

Support the center, develop the c1 bishop intelligently, and choose c4 or e4 as the main challenge.

BLACK'S GOALS

Attack d4 with ...c5 or ...e5, develop outside the pawn chain when possible, and avoid a passive mirror setup.

PAWN BREAKS - THE ENGINE OF THE OPENING

c4/c5 and e4/e5 are the central levers; wing play should support one of them.

PIECE MAP

The c1 and c8 bishops reveal whether each side's structure is healthy. Knights contest e4 and e5. The central pawn placement should decide where each bishop and knight belongs.

WHAT USUALLY GOES WRONG

A familiar setup is not an excuse to ignore the opponent's move order or a sudden central break. The word 'attack' is a name, not a guarantee; complete development before forcing matters.

POSITION SNAPSHOT

Black moves next. Material is level. Central markers: White pawn on d4, Black pawn on d5.

WHO SHOULD STUDY IT?

Good practical territory for building a consistent repertoire; gambit branches should be checked concretely.
